Figure 4. City-wide estimates for lethal overdoses over time. Observed data are plotted as vertically jittered points. Model-based estimates are shown as one thousand regression lines sampled from the posterior distribution to display uncertainty in the regression relationship between time and lethal overdose. The vertical dotted line marks April 2014.